Dr. Serena Gaia

aka Serena Anderlini-D'Onofrio, PhD, dedicates her life to research, teaching and practice in the arts of love.

She is the founder of #Alchemies of #Ecosexual #Love, a leader in the ecosexual movement, and an expert in the ecology of love.

Her oeuvre has bridged gaps and opened pathways between the world of academic research and the knowledge that emanates from communities that practice love in ways that are open, conscious, holistic, fluid and inclusive.

Thanks to her graduate education at the University of California, Riverside, she has completed her career as a Full Professor at the University of Puerto Rico, Mayagüez, with a wide range of peer-reviewed publications and a number of original courses.

She is also trained in Tantra, Tao, the Landmark Forum, ISTA, ecosexual expression, holistic health and massage. She has facilitated in Hawaii, Sweden, Italy, the USA, Puerto Rico and Estonia.

She is now a sex-positive educator and she has participated in the project Free2Love, the first Tantra Festival online in Italian. She has been involved in the ecovillage movement since 2005. In 2012 she keynoted at the 2012 Ecosex Symposium, and in 2007 at Loving More.

An award-winning writer, activist, facilitator, scholar, filmmaker, professor, editor, and cultural theorist, she co-edited the collection Ecosexuality (2015), and co-directed Playa Azul I Love You (2016). "Her prophetic books," including Eros (2006, 2021) and Gaia (2009), "have inspired readers around the world," Dr. Susan M. Block has said.

Her inspirational memoir EROS: The Wisdom of Love is now available in English and Italian. Dr. SerenaGaia believes that "a world where it is safe to love is a world where it is safe to live," and intends to create that world with her sacred activism.
